

01.11.2018 ROUND TABLE The Development of Civil Law in Modern Media Space

Focus area

- The implementation of the duty of good faith principle for the parties of civil legal relationships.
- Non-conventional objects of civil legal relations: energy, information, ideas, crypto-currency, etc.
- The ration between dispositive and imperative in the legal regulation of civil and business relationships.
- Digitalization of society as one of the leading factors of civil law development.
- Artificial intelligence as the subject of civil law.
- The hereditary fund and contract as new statutory concepts in civil law.
- Protection of non-property rights and intangible benefits of an individual from wrongdoings committed via the Internet (Internet crimes).
- Challenges in the protection of violated subjective civil rights and legally protected interests' application.
- Protection of intangible (cultural, creative, intellectual) heritage of the peoples of Russia as special objects of civil legal relationships.
- Franchising agreement as a legal basis for regional brands' development
- Personal data as the object of civil rights.
- Civil law relationships and information security.