

Regulation of Social and Labor Relations in the Context of Structural Economic Changes

01-02.11.2018 PANEL DISCUSSION: Regulation of Social and Labor Relations in the Context of Structural Economic Changes

Focus Areas

- Current trends in labor and social security law development;
- Regulation of social and labor relations in the context of development of the digital economy;
- Impact of centralization and regionalization on social and labor relations' regulation;
- Modern political and economic threats and the development of labor law;
- Informal employment and a non-typical labor relations;
- Contemporary social risks and social obligations of the state.